“ Miss Mae Alice was such a fine lady. She was a credit to the bank, where she made her career, and to the customer's, such as myself, who needed her help. She was so dedicated to Elim Baptist Church over so many years. Last, but not least, she was a close friend to my Mom and a friend of mine. Miss Mae Alice lived to help others. My deepest sympathy.

“ I did not know Miss Mae Alice that personally, but as another banker in town knew of her at the bank. I never heard a bad word about her and always heard how she enjoyed her job and her customers. My sympathy goes out to you, her family. May God comfort you at this time.
