

Malinda Ann Cook

January 15, 1969 - February 4, 2025

Malinda Ann Cook, 56, of Newnan passed away unexpectedly on February 4, 2025. Born January 15, 1969, Malinda is survived by her father, Billy Cook of Newnan; her mother, Ann Cook of Buford; and her beloved 4-legged canine daughter, Blueberry. Malinda is also survived by her brother, Jason (Ashley) Castles of Newnan and her sister, Jennifer (Joe) Oxford of Palmetto, along with her nieces and nephews, aunts, uncles, and cousins. Preceding her in death are her paternal grandparents, Ellis Cook and Florrie Smith and her maternal grandparents, James and Helen Musick, all of Newnan.

An avid thrifter and always in search of a good bargain, you could often find Malinda scouring local thrift stores and estate sales searching for treasures. Malinda was also passionate about animals, especially weenie dogs. Despite her struggles, she loved her family deeply and always had a smile on her face and a laugh in her voice.

"Don't grieve for me for now I'm free;
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee

God wanted me now: He set me free..."

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to Newnan City Church for their gracious generosity in offering their facilities for a memorial service to be announced at a later date to honor Malinda's life.
