“ My deepest sympathy to Ken and all the family! Marcia was such a sweet caring person and always a joy to be around. I worked with her husband years ago at Freshens and used to see them a couple of times a year for our golf tournaments or for lunch. She will be dearly missed. .

“ Marcia was a wonderful Christian and active member of our Newnan Presbyterian Church. She and Ken were always together in a loving relationship. They were the most avid Clemson Tiger fans of anybody we know. We will truly miss this Southern lady.

“ I remember Marcia at Newnan Presbyterian church. She was so helpful in the kitchen when there was a need. She was so kind and thoughtful. I was with her in many Bible study groups and church committee meetings. She always had a good word to say and you could feel the peace of Christ when I was near her. It was a blessing to be with her. She is missed.
