“ Dear Charles, I only learned of your mother's death today, July 2, 2009. I am so very sorry to hear of it. My husband William, and I met Mr. and Mrs. Coffey soon after they came to Smyrna. William went to church with him and they were in the same "Young Men's Class". I can not tell you how much we enjoyed them over the years. They were a wonderful couple. Sincerely, Katherine Walkup

“ Dear Coffey Family, Margaret and Ed were my neighbors in Smyrna, I remember them both fondly. I lost my husband while living there, and they were both so kind to my family during that difficult time. I am sincerely sorry for your loss. My prayers are with you and your family. “ Dear Charles, I know that we have never met, My young sons and I would visit and play bingo with you lovely mother, every Friday. Plus numerous holidays and birthdays. It was a sad day for us yesterday to not see her smiling face, to get a hug. I know that she is happy now, and is not in this worldly pain. She was always happy to see Aaron and Ethan, she said they reminded her of you and your brother, hopefully that brought her some extra joy. We will miss her greatly! As you go through her things you will find a photo in a frame that is our family. Hopefully, you will know that if you need a little extra family we would love to be a part! As in a way, she was a grandma to us. Thank you for sharing her with us! Our heart to yours, Keith, Michelle, Athena, Aaron, & Ethan Salmon

“ To the Coffey Family, May each of you find comfort in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18) He has promised to soon "swallow up death forever...and wipe the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25;8) Take care,

“ Today I learned Margaret Coffey has gone on to be with her faithful and loving husband Ed. Their marriage spoke to me about our relationships with God. Just like the Love God has for us, Ed, faithfully loved Margaret for eternity. The labors of Ed's love for his bride reminded me of the deep laborious love Christ Jesus gave the church. Ed provided for Margaret in some many ways. One of my favorite memories was knowing Ed loved to cook for Margaret. Ed nourished his wife's life. Margaret reminds me of the beautiful bride the true believers, serves to be by becoming the bride of Christ.
