

Margaret Glover

January 12, 1924 - October 30, 2010

Margaret (Bobbie) Wilson Glover

Born January 12 1924 in Atlanta Georgia to the late William Odom Wilson and Mary Robertson Wilson, Bobbie was preceded in death by an older sister, Sara Wilson Jenkins, her husband of 56 year Dr. Nat Glover, and her son David Clarke Glover. She is survived by her brother, William O. Wilson Jr., his wife Brenda Reese Wilson of Atlanta and her children: sons and daughters-in-law Banks and Carol Glover, Richard and Debbie Glover, Carol Ann Glover, Jim and Debbie Glover of Mechanicsville Virginia and daughter and son-in-law Mary Frances and Marc Honea as well as 12 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren. Also surviving are her honorary sons and daughters-in-law Dr. Bill Dobes and wife Martha of Atlanta, and Bob Dobes and wife Susan of Panama City Florida. Online condolences may be expressed to the family at www.mckoon.com

She graduated from North Atlanta Presbyterian School, frequently appearing in the Atlanta newspapers modeling clothes for both the Rich's and the J.P. Allen Department Stores. She attended Agnes Scott College where, at a friend's debutant party, she met Dr. Nat Glover of Newnan whom she married shortly afterwards.

She and Nat loved dancing and fishing and she especially enjoyed working in her yard, having personally and lovingly planted each of the hundreds of azalea plants that can be seen at the old family home on Alpine Drive.

Bobbie was a member of Central Baptist Church where she taught the Cradle Roll Sunday School for over 20 years, then joined the Joy Class where she remained a member. Always involved in her children's lives, she served as a Cub Scout den mother for all four of her boys and a Brownie leader for her daughter.

Well known throughout Newnan for her civic involvement, she was active in the Driftwood Garden Club, having served one term as President, was a member of the Newnan Junior Service League as well as a member of the Ladies Auxiliary at Newnan Hospital.

A consummate hostess, an avid bridge player, a master of knitting and needlepoint, but above all these she cherished her family. Even after moving to Wesley Woods in 2000 she continued to orchestrate the annual family gatherings at the old family home on Alpine Drive.

Those who knew her will long remember her love of humor and her constant smile. This ever-positive outlook infected all around her. Just recently she joked that she probably was Newnan's oldest Matron of Honor, having served as such at the age of 85 for a close friend's wedding.

A celebration of her life will be held at Central Baptist Church at 1:00 O'clock pm on Friday, the 5th of November. In lieu of flowers the family requests that donations be made to the Central Baptist Video Ministry.

“ Dear Banks, Mary Frances and Family: It was with deepest regret that I learned of the passing of your Mother. She was a very friendly lady when I used to come to your home to play music with Banks and tease Mary Frances. She will be greatly missed both by her family as well as her extended family. May God be with you all as you bear this loss. Eddie

“ In the times of celebration over the years when we were welcomed into family gatherings and events, it was Bobbie Glover who always had the most fun. She delighted in life. She could light up a room when she came in. Now, the stars in the sky will seem a little brighter because she is among them. And, her legacy will live on. We are very thankful to have known her.

“ Thank you SO much for making the extra effort to make sure that I knew of Bobbie's death. It meant a great deal to me for you to be so thoughtful of me. Bobbie meant the world to me over the last several years. She was always so dear and wonderful to me, my sisters and our mother. She is and always will be deeply loved and missed. My heart, thoughts, and prayers go out to you. I truly wish I could be with you tomorrow, but am out of town and will not be able to return until late Sunday. I will be there in spirit and love.
