“ I am so sorry for your loss. We loved Mrs. Evelyn very much and are going to miss her terribly. She was a wonderful neighbor to us and I will never forget her spunky personality. I am sorry we were unable to make it to the receiving or the funeral but, please do not hesitate to ask us for anything. Love and prayers to all of you!

“ We met Ms. Evelyn only a couple of times over the years, but she was appreciated and leaves her legacy through her daughters Johnnie Mae and Robin, two, warm, beautiful people in both appearance and spirit. We are proud to have an association with the family. Our sympathies to Johnnie Mae, Robin, and the rest of the family during this difficult time.
