“ Grandma, I miss you so much already, but I know you are in a better place. It hasn't truly sunk in yet, and I know when it does, I'm going to break, but we will be ok. Your love, kindness, compassion, strength,, and resilience you have shown and taught us throughout our lives will ensure that. You were my best friend and my number one supporter. I could tell you anything and I always knew that I would be your baby. Everyone jokes and picks at me about how I'm your favorite and how spoiled you made me, but I can't deny the truth in it. The love you showed me was what got me through everything in life. Especially the school years. You made sure no matter how bad it got, I wasn't alone. Words can never truly express how important you are and how much I love you. Thank you for being the best grandma I could have ever asked for. I'll see you again, and until then, I feel you with me every moment. I love you, grandma
