

Margie W. Gordy

November 27, 1924 - February 23, 2008

Mrs. Margie Whitten Gordy, 83 of Newnan, GA died Saturday February 23, 2008. She was born in Woodland, Alabama and was the daughter of the late Joel Bradford and Evie Camp Whitten. She was preceded in death by her husband, the well-known woodcrafter, Herbert Ezra Gordy, October 4, 2002.

Mrs. Gordy had a long and active life and was loved by all who knew her. In her younger years she focused with pride on supporting her husband and raising her two sons while supporting her father with his commercial egg and dairy farm on Sprayberry Road. After her children left Newnan for undergraduate school, she began a career of providing day care for the children of young working families. In this role, for which she is well loved, she helped raise and positively touch the lives of nearly two dozen Newnan children, many of them daily, from infancy to middle or high school. She treated all who entered her home as family and never turned anyone away from her always bountiful table.

She is survived by her two sons, Bishop Herbert Julian Gordy and his wife Pastor Morgan Gordy of Franklin, Tennessee, and Thomas Arthur Gordy and his wife Denise of Newnan. Among her many blessings are eight grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are by McKoon Funeral Home at 38 Jackson Street in
