November 2, 1948 - October 24, 2012

Marilyn Preston Cross-Hockaday passed away on Wednesday, October 24, 2012. She was born on November 2, 1948 in Atlanta, Georgia to parents Callie Elrod Preston & James Albert Preston. She was elected Miss Stay & See East Point 1966. She was a graduate of Headland High School in East Point (1966) and California State University-Northridge (1977).

Always the caregiver, listener, and strength to her family, her smile and presence lit up the room and were a hallmark of a happy life.

Later she returned to the Atlanta area to care for her parents. There, she met and fell in love with husband, Dean with whom she shared the last few joyful years.

Survivors include her husband, Dean Hockaday; daughter, Lindsay Cross; son, Trevor Cross (Bonnie); granddaughter, Miriam Cross; parents, J.R. & Callie Sowell; siblings, Cindy Morgan, Jimmy Preston, Renee Sherrer, and Randy Sowell. Preceding her in death was father, James A. Preston.

“ To the family: Marilyn was not just a co-worker to me, she was a friend. A kind, funny, genuine person who never met a stranger and welcomed every customer into our store with sincere warmth and interest in their needs. There are many people that are all the better for having known her. And many who's hearts are less complete with her passing.
