“ Our hearts are broken at Axis Milling. Mark was not only a colleague, he was a friend. Mark was kind, helpful and treated everyone with respect. He had a funny sense of humor and we're going to miss him so much. Mark will always be part of the Axis team. He'll be missed not just for what he knew, but for who he was. Continued prayers to Mark's family and friends.

“Where do we begin? I agree with Deborah on everything she said about Mark. Our in-law siblings have been more like brothers and sisters, truly part of our family.

There are three things that stand out to me about Mark. He loved our sister, Dawn, fiercely and I never heard him speak a word against her nor a hurtful thing to her.

Their gift of hospitality was an amazing thing they shared with any and everyone, not just family. You always felt welcome in their home. His love for his beloved, Cleo, and her love for him was a sweet thing to watch. If Mark was holding her, you could not touch him without her growling to let you know ‘this is MY person...hands off!’ (I could go on, but I won’t.) We are all very grateful that God blessed our family by bringing he and Dawn together in marriage. He was a sweet blessing and we look forward to seeing him again, maybe soon! Much love to all of you and continued prayers for comfort and peace.

I must add to the post I made. Mark was one of the hardest working people I have known and his work ethic was impeccable.

He was always a steady person, did not fluctuate in his personality...he was who you saw him to be.

“ In the late summer of 1971, Mark and I became best friends. We were on the same city football team, the yellow jackets for 11 and 12 years old. We were also in the same 6th grade class, Mr Lee. We were friends although our teen years. Mark was the best friend a teenager could ask for. We lost touch and that is how it goes but he was so good to me in my younger years. Mark's whole family were so good to me in my younger years. He is with David, his parents and the Lord. One day we will all be together with the Lord

“ First, let me say that our hearts are broken for Dawn, her’s and Mark’s children and grandchildren, and for his siblings. 💔💔💔💔💔. We are praying for each of you continually and we love you dearly.

Mark was like a brother to each of us, his sisters and brothers-n-law. He and Dawn always opened their home to family and friends. We have countless special memories of being in their home for holidays and birthdays. ❤️ ❤️ ❤️ We will always be grateful for their special hospitality. ❤️❤️❤️

We always enjoyed talking to Mark, as he was a wealth of information...which he would always say “useless information”, but not to us...he was always interesting to talk to and we always learned something new in our conversations with him. ❤️ ❤️ ❤️ He would have been a great and winning contestant on Jeopardy!!! 😊 We will miss Mark terribly...I’m crying as I write this because he truly was our brother and we loved him...he will always be a part of our family. ❤️❤️❤️

We will all be together again some day because of Jesus. ❤️❤️❤️
❤️❤️❤️

Much Love, Danny and Deborah ❤️❤️❤️

We always felt a part of this family. I known Dawn since she was very young. Her family seemed like family to us. We never had the opportunity to meet him but we know he was a good one. Our hearts are broken for his family. When We All Get To Heaven and Heavens Sounding Sweeter every day!

Love 💕 and prayers are with you all!
