“ Aunt Jo, I will truly miss you so much, In my heart you were really my Aunt Jo and you always called me your niece. I still remember the day at church when you asked me to sing at your Funeral when you passed and I said don't say that, and you said, I really want you to, and I said ok, then Uncle Tony said I want you to do it at mine to and I laughed and said oh yours will be easy to do, But Aunt Jo's will be hard for me. and he said oh hush. Just please watch over me while your up there. I love you, Oh and Alexis made you a card at school and you would have loved it, she says that she misses you so much.

“ I'm at such a loss for words.....She IS my friend and always shall be even in Heaven. Marla Jo touched many lives. May her memory and spirit continue to bless. For our time on earth is short ,we will have an eternity together in Heaven soon. Take care of my little one's Marla until I get there.

“ Rhonda and family, So sorry to her about your mom. I know that you should not have favorite patients but...how could you not consider her special. Her attitude was one of a real trooper. She always come in with a smile for you and a pleasant greeting. I know that she will continue to watch over you as your special angel. My thoughts are with you all and I will try to make it to the funeral.
