“ I'm so sorry for your loss! I've looked and thought of Marsha over the years, the last I knew she was living in NJ. I had forgotten Franks last name until I saw it in Mr. Bentley's obituary recently, I'm so sorry. I now live down the street on Kelly ave, where Marsha lived, we had parties at her house. She was my best friend in grade school at Our Lady of Peace. We went on to different high schools, but, we went on double dates often and always laughed and laughed. I often thought of Marsha and her old house appeared empty. I stopped at the house next door in September in an attempt to find Marsha again. The lady told me Marsha had passed away the week before, I cried. I loved Marsha and I know she loved me. We'll see each other later I'm sure. Again, sorry for your loss.
