

Martha W. Cowap

November 11, 1933 - November 2, 2024

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Martha Emily Williams Cowap, a beloved mother, cherished friend, and a devoted Christian woman. Martha left this world peacefully in the early morning hours on Saturday, November 2, 2024.

Born on November 11, 1933, to the late Bryant and Mildred Williams, Martha lived a life rich in faith and compassion. Her unwavering strength and kindness inspired many, and she touched countless lives with her warm smile and generous spirit.

Martha loved nature, finding joy in nurturing her garden filled with vibrant flowers and beautiful azaleas. These blossoms reflected her vibrant personality and the beauty she brought into the lives of others. As a mother, she was nurturing and supportive, always encouraging her daughter to pursue her dreams with faith and resilience. Her friendships were deep and meaningful, marked by her loyalty and unwavering support.

A celebration of Martha's life will be held on Tuesday, November 5, 2024, in the chapel of McKoon Funeral Home, with Dr. Ken Norton officiating. We will gather to honor her remarkable journey and the love she shared. The family will receive friends on Tuesday beginning at 12:00 PM until service time. Burial will follow the service at Providence Baptist Church Cemetery in Newnan.

Along with her parents, Martha is preceded in death by her husband, Thomas Andrew Cowap, sister Linda (Rick) Ransburg, and step-grandson Joel Crawford. She is survived by her daughter, Becky Crawford, and her husband, Larry; step-grandchildren, Tammie Richards (Ryan) and Christie Hayes (Scott); 4 great-grandchildren; and 3 great-great-grandchildren. Martha also leaves behind her nieces, with whom she shares a close bond: Cindy (Bob) Bernisky and her children and grandchildren, and Debbie Ransburg and her children and grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Tunnel to Towers Foundation, <https://t2t.org/donate/>, or to the charity of your choosing.

Condolences may be expressed to the family online at www.mckoon.com.

“ Becky, I'm so sorry for your loss. I know just how special Mama's are and how hard it is especially when you lose them. I have such fond memories of walking up the street when I was young and stopping by the flower shop to have such a fun chat with Ms. Martha. She always had a wonderful spirit and sweet smile. I remember having her make some of our wedding flowers. On a funny note we went trick or treating at her house one year and she didn't have candy because she wasn't expecting anyone where she actually lived, but we didn't leave empty handed... she gave us some canned goods out of her pantry. Lol... She was so much fun to me. So I will always have special memories of her. I pray for peace and comfort. Sending love. Marsha and Jimmy Morris
