“ I truly regret that we were unable to attend Martha Jean's funeral due to John O's recent surgery. Often some one who is an independent, strong, determined and outspoken as Marcy was does not verbalize their love because it is so obvious to them. (Especially in the Puckett family) Let me tell you what I know from my forty years of knowing and loving Marcy. Debbie and Andy, she appreciated every thing you did for her: each visit, phone call and all assistance when she ailed. She always told me how you spoiled and pampered her when she recuperated in your home. You were the perfect son and daughter-in-law...The Golden Couple! Drew, Jennifer and Jeff, you were the most beautiful, handsomest grandchildren in the world. She would not give to one without doing some thing of equal value for the others because her love was equal and she never wanted to cause any hurtful feelings among you. She worried about you and wanted only security and happiness for each of you. Connie, Jason and Jennifer, you were the answers to her prayers for fulfillment and happiness for her adult grandchildren. Without you she wouldn't have enjoyed her beautiful great-grandchildren. She loved you as if you were her own. Bryce, Brynlee, Alexa and Carleigh, you four were the apples of her eye. Each time John O entered a room, Marcy always had a special dazzling smile. I know she saved one of those dazzlers for you. Carleigh's birthday phone call this year brought her great pleasure. Her only wish for all of you "greats" would be security, health and happiness. Family was every thing to Marcy. She considered you her greatest accomplishment. She was proud of all of your many accomplishments and loved you each deeply. Being a mix of old school southern belle and steel magnolia with a major dose of Scarlett O'Hara mixed in, it may have been difficult to know at times. Remember her fortitude and follow her example in life and you can't go wrong. She will always be a part of each of you. We'll miss her fiesty attitude and positive outlook. She is in each of you. Keep her close in your hearts as she did each of you. Time and the Good Lord will ease the pain of her loss. I will certainly miss hearing about your many adventures in life. God Bless!

“ Andy and Debbie, I was so sorry to hear of Martha Jean's death. I didn't know about it until after the funeral. We haven't been in touch the last year or so, but she was so positive when we used to talk. I knew she had problems, but she didn't seem to let them get her down. I so admired that. We worked together many years in the Business Office at Southern Bell. She was so proud of her family. I know you will all miss her and my thoughts will be with you.

“ I worked with Martha Jean at Southern Bell for many years. She was a great friend to my Aunt Grace who lived across the street from her for many years. I lost my Mom in January of this year, so I understand the emotions that you are going through. May God give you peace in knowing that you will meet again in a greater place..
