“ Martha and I have been friends for years and have so enjoyed knowing her. I had nor heard from her in a few days and that was unusual so I researched and found that she had died. She was always kind and shared her love of dolls and the many that made her so happy. She had a thing for having them look just right. Out most recent talk on the 2nd was about perfect eyelashes, her love of the sun, and how she was looking forward to enjoying her pool. I will miss her alot...

“ Mary, I was saddened to hear of Martha's passing. I was just thinking of her the other day. We always told everyone that we were so tall in 5th grade that they used us for the flag poles on May Day. We had so many great times in the band together. I will never forget what a great Drum Majorette she was. She had the strut down pat. My best to you and yours in this sad time. Joy Shepherd Ward

“ I had the opportunity of sub teaching along side Mrs. Newsom several times when she taught at Elm St. and Newnan Crossing Elementary schools. She was one of the kindest and most dedicated teachers who I have ever observed. Your entire family has my deepest sympathy.
