“ Dearest David and Kathy and the rest of the Norton family... I am so sorry that we did not know of the passing of your sweet mama. I also did not know that you had lost your special Dad. When I read in the paper after the fact I felt in my spirit that it was your precious mama. Please know that I have been holding you and your family in my thoughts and prayers. They are united now with our awesome Jesus and know thru these next weeks and months and years to come God will truly be holding you all in the palm of His hand and He will be your strength, peace and comfort. We our deepest sympathy and love for all of you.

“ The last words I said to you the day you passed into the Loving Arms of Jesus still hold true. I LOVE YOU, Mama. Daddy is with his Rib. You are in no more pain. There will be times I want to call you at my usual time...I will miss you. I will make a point to use that time to tell how WONDERFUL the Lord is. I praise His Holy Name! We may feel weak now, but that is when God is strong and he will take our frailties and use them for His Glory. I'll see you in Heaven Some Day, Mama. It will be worth it all. I love you so much. I thank you for everything. <3

“ Mama, you have been in Heaven for a couple of days now, and even knowing that, I miss you so much. How do I get through this day without picking up the phone and calling you? How happy you are now. No more tears, no more pain, no more death. I love you mama, and will see you soon...

“ Ms. Maxine was loved by so many and will be sorely missed, just as Brother Tom. I am content knowing they are dancing together in heaven with the angels. Their crowns await them in Glory for the wonderful work they did here on earth spreading God's word. May they rest in peace together forever. Much love and many blessings to all the family, Lucy Duncan Robbins, Mae Duncan Stephens and all our extended family.
