“ To the entire family, I learned of your tremendous loss just this weekend and am so sorry that I did not have the opportunity to attend the funeral to honor Martin. Martin and Max stand out in the memories of my coaching career as two young men who loved swimming and competition. I still remember the effort to get the relay team to the state championship and the fun we had there. I hope someday Zachary can share Martin's love of swimming and in that love become closer to his father. Please accept my heartfelt condolences and prayers.

“ Dear Gay & Kyle, As I watched the video of Martin's service, I kept thinking of what I wanted to say to you in this condolence and my heart was so heavy with pain for you guys that I just couldn't form the thoughts to adequately express what I want to say. I know, after seeing all the people there tonight, your family is much, much loved, especially Martin and that has to bring you some small measure of comfort. We are NOT SUPPOSED to bury our children, and there are much greater christians than I, that can answer all the whys and the reasons we go through these great measures of pain. So I simply want to say that I love you and I am that friend that will be there for you if you need me and I will continually pray for you and most certainly love you. Please, please, let me know if I can be there for you in any way. I love you, Cheryl Baker

“ God said, "I will never leave you or forsake you" (Hebrews 13:5 NKJV), and Jesus said, "Surely I am with you always, to the end of the age" (Matthew 26:20). Although the pain may be great, we do not need to be afraid that the storms of life will destroy us, because Jesus is in the boat with us. His power can calm the seas and still the storms of life that threaten to pull us under. Dawn- I hope that you look to God to guide you through this time and know that he is always there for you. “ Dear Justice Family My heart aches for your loss. I worked with Martin at BAX/Schenker and enjoyed his vibrant spirit. Losing a loved one is never easy, but with time we all adjust to it. A very dear friend of mine shared the following with me when I lost my daughter last year. "We may be saying good bye, but there is someone on the other side with outstretched arms saying, 'Welcome Home!'" It helped to ease my pain and I hope and pray this thought helps to ease yours. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you as you heal from this tragedy. Be good to yourself and let the mourning process take its course. - Kevin

“ Kyle, Gay, Dawn & family: I can't imagine the pain you must be experiencing at this time. I know you must have such sweet wonderful memories of Martin as a son, husband, brother & father. What a joy he must have been to each of your lives. Those sweet memories are what will give you strength to carry on. My prayer for each of you is to experience a comfort and peace from God the Father who alone is able to give it.

“ Dear Gay, Kyle, Dawn, Zachary and the family of Martin, I was so saddened to learn of Martin's death. My son, Cameron, went to high school with Martin, and they also played baseball together. I was so happy to see Martin last summer and he was so excited talking about his young son. You all have lost a wonderful son, husband, father and brother. I can't express the deep sorrow I feel for you and your family on his loss, but please accept my deepest sympathy, May the Lord lift you and guide you during this most painful time. Many thought and prayers go out to each of you. Jackie Hinz
