“ To the family of Marvin Brittain, I am so sorry to learn of the passing of Marvin, but he certainly did live a long productive life. Marvin and my husband, J.T. Joiner, worked together at MARTA and became friends. Marvin visited my husband on a number of occasions, some while he was ill with Alzheimer's Disease. He also visited me one time since J.T.'s passing in 2010. I appreciated his visit. I know you will miss him but pray the memories you hold in your hearts will bring healing and peace to your soul.

“ My wife and I have known Bro. Marvin since 1992 when we became members of East Newnan Baptist Church. We both grew to love and respect Bro. Marvin. We understood him to be a man of integrity. If he couldn't help you he certainly wouldn't hurt you. We understood how much he loved his family and his Church. We have plans of seeing him again someday. We will miss you Bro. Marvin. “ To the family of Mr. Marvin: We were so saddened to learn of Mr. Marvin's death. We did not get to know him until we started to East Newnan Baptist. I only wish that I had know him sooner. I found out that he and my daddy (Bud O'Brien) ran around together as young men, and he told me a lot of stories about them, which I will always treasure. We will certainly miss seeing him at church, and I will especially miss the kiss on the cheek that he always gave me. Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. He was such a fine gentleman. May God comfort you in your loss.
