“ *My heart is broken. The Aagesens were neighbors in Corning, NY and we loved them all.
It is much too soon for her to be gone. I haven't seen her for many years, but we stayed in touch every year at Christmas. We loved Uffe's letters and hope we will continue to be on his list. Rest in peace my sweet southern belle.*

“ MaryNeighbor was one of the most fun-loving people I have met to this day. I have so many fond memories of her and in each one she is laughing or smiling. She is already missed. Heaven got a great one today. I can only imagine what she had to say when she went through the pearly gates. I suspect the welcoming committee was quite large.

RIP MaryNeighbor.

Mary was so charming, warm and loving, yet tough and realistic. Her mere presence gave a calm and loving atmosphere and she had very good ability of seeing the individual and listen. I loved her very much! Here a photo of Mary and Uffe from my fantastic visit in Corning in 1982.
