“ For all the years I knew your Mother, I found her to be a loving woman and an amazing Mother, Grandmother, and friend to many. I know she will be missed a lot. I pray for all of you to find the peace that she wants you to have now. She'll be watching to help you through it, so don't disappoint her. My love to you all.

“ Miss Mary Ann was a beautiful, gentle LADY.I know for the family letting go is the hardest and yet the easiest thing you can do. She is free of suffering now and she is singing a new song. My heart goes out to you children and grandchildren. You will miss her forever, but our awesome God knows what you need and He will keep his arms around you till it gets better. Can you just imagine that reunion some day in the future? Patsy
