“ So sorry to hear of Mary's passing. Our thoughts and prayers are with all the family. It was a pleasure to live next door to Kilgore's because they were really good neighbors. Mary was always doing things to help not me but all her neighbors. She will surely be missed.

“ Dear Kilgores and all of Mary's family and friends,
There is not much to say that has not already been said about my dear friend I will truly miss. Her laughter, her sweetness, her standing up for what was right in the nicest way possible, and her ability to be a mother, friend, and wife any husband, child or friend would want. She taught me a lot about who we are suppose to be in Christ even when she suffered, that is one of the reasons I recognized he was real in her she never complained much when she was around me, although she had much she could have complained about. It was not because she hid things from me. She shared her deepest fears with me, and I am so very thankful to God for this amazing relationship that changed my life in so many ways. God used her in so many ways for others, but it was time for her to go home and not suffer any more. She did her part and was his faithful servant till the end, and I am so thankful that God chose me out of the world to witness such an amazing servant of his.
His peace and love always,
Vicki Gann

“ Dear Wayne and Family,

Words cannot express how sad I am for the lost of Mary. I know you did all you could for her and that she loved everyone of you. I wish I could have been there for her I shall live with that guilt for she was a very special friend. I will always have the best memories of her as I am sure you all do. I know for sure she is with our heavenly Father. I am forever grateful to her for accepting me to be one of her friends. I will be praying for you all to find the peace that only our Lord can give.

With all my Love, Nettie

“ When I taught Clark in kindergarten at Moreland Elementary School, I was always glad to see Mary show up in our classroom. Her sweet smiling face told me that she was there to volunteer her time to help in any way possible.

I soon learned that Mary was proud of her family. She loved each of you very much.

She will be so happy to see you again one day, when in God's perfect timing, you meet her in Heaven. Until then God's Grace can help you get through this difficult time here without her. Just remember how much she loved you. Put your trust in Jesus as your Savior. And by doing that you will be with her again.

“ Mary was a very sweet spirit. She always made me feel loved. I always looked forward to seeing her at church. No matter where I was, she always would come over and give me a big hug. If she did not spot me first, I would go to her. I met Mary in my Sunday School Class> The Way/New Beginnings. She always had a smile, that I will always remember. I am sad for her family, especially her loving husband Wayne who adored her. I know she is safe now in the arms of Christ, no more pain, only happiness forever. Lois T Townsend

“ Mary was a kind and gentle soul I was proud to know. She served as the treasurer/whatever needed to be done for many years at Boy Scout Troop 48 in Moreland. She and I spent many hours talking about our children. I also got to see Mary for many more years in the lunchroom at Moreland Elementary. Mary was so proud of her family and showed me photos whenever possible. Rest easy my friend. You've made it home.
