“ I have fond memories of Mary Ann when we both worked at PNC. She was so full of fun, always smiling, great to be around. She gave us updates on Gina who she adored, and though I never met Gina, felt I knew her because of Mary Ann. Joyce kept me updated on her comings and goings as time went on, and when she moved to GA. My deepest sympathy to you, Gina, and your family for your loss.

“ I have the best childhood memories with Aunt Mary Ann. I am so fortunate to have her as my God Mother. I will always remember the HUGE Christmas trees and all fun times. The chicken videos she would send to Teddy were always a treat.
