“ Mrs. Tittle taught my two brothers (Phil and John Tidwell) and me in 5th grade. She also taught my husband Jim Madden. She was one of my favorite teachers because she looked for the best in her students. It was a pleasure to join her as a teacher at Eastside. She was a good example of what a teacher should be. She would always say, "Tell me some more".

“ What a great Lady Mrs Tittle was and is. She and I for many years traded books. The Lord shared her wit, wisdom and Christian faith with us for many wonderful years. Now we have one less friend on this side but another Angel on the other. My conolences to her other friends and family.

“ Mrs. Tittle was my 5th grade teacher and I will never forget her. She was and always will be remembered as an example of what a fine Christian lady should be. She always had a kind word. The world and her family was certainly blessed to have her as a part of their lives. She will always be remembered. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family. Numbers 6:24 - 26 says this, The Lord bless thee and keep thee, The Lord make His face shine upon thee, and be gracious to thee: The Lord lift up His countenance upon thee, and give thee peace. “ I wish to express my prayers and thoughts, to all of the family. Mrs. Tittle was an influence in my young life, she wasn't my teacher, but I respected her and I am thankful that I got to know her. So kind to me when we lived near Christopher Rd. God Bless all, hold her memories in your hearts. Nancy

“ I did my student teaching with Mrs. Tittle in 1972 at East Side. She was a powerful influence on me and made my dream of being a master teacher come true. I often think of the encouragement she gave me. I think of the fun we had, all of the coffee we drank, and of course all of our conversations that always ended with her saying, "Tell me some more".

“ Mrs. Tittle was a very wonderful lady. Also showed you how to do the right thing. Also encouraged you to do you best at any thing you wanted to try. She not only taught students to believe in them selves - she also encouraged them to try new things - step out of your comfort zone and try new ideas and dreams. She was a great mentor.

“ Mrs. Tittle and I team taught my first year of teaching at Eastside Elementary in 1977. I learned so much from her and after thirty-three years in the classroom, I still see and feel her influence upon me. I was a little scared girl fresh out of college and she gave me the confidence to believe in myself as a teacher. She will always have a special place in my heart. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. Love and Prayers, Marty Todd

“ My heart goes out to your family. What we have lost heaven has gained, Mrs. Tittle was a truly wonderful lady who touched the lives of many. She will live on in our hearts and minds but sadly missed. She taught me in elementary school and was an exceptional teacher and friend. Over all these years I've never forgotten her and never will.
