

Mary Lou Vogt

June 8, 1932 - January 7, 2018

MARY LOU VOGT

Mary Lou Bash Vogt, 85, widow of Raymond, died January 7, 2018 at Christian City in Union City.

Born in Pleasant Unity, PA, June 8, 1932, she was a daughter of the late Reuben and Lulu Downs Bash. Mrs. Vogt was retired from Eastern Airlines where she worked for many years in the Catering Department at both LaGuardia and Hartsfield International Airports. She was a member of the International Association of Administrative Professionals where she formerly served as President. She was also a member of the Pilot Club and was associated with the Powers Crossroads Festival for many years.

Mrs. Vogt was a member of the Newnan First United Methodist Church.

In addition to her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by a sister, Phyllis Johnson and a brother, John Thomas "Jack" Bash.

Survivors include her brother-in-law, Walter D. Johnson, several nieces and nephews and grandnieces and grandnephews in Florida and Pennsylvania, and very special family friends Bud and Becky Freeburg, Mary (Kerry) Moore and Joanna (Colby) Brown.

A visitation will be held from 10-11 am followed by a memorial service on Saturday, January 13, 2018 at 11:00 am at the McKoon Funeral Home Chapel, 38 Jackson Street. A private burial will follow in Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

“ A very sweet lady. She was always very busy and wanting to help anyone she could. Bud and Becky, you were more than close friends, you took her as one of your family and she loved you both so much. And those girls were the "apple of her eye!" Thinking of you both. Linda Denney

Mary Lou was a special person. I enjoyed visiting her when she lived in Newnan. I enjoyed having her ride with me to church.

Mary Lou was a smart, wonderful woman who was so interesting to talk to. My mother Lillian Hammock who was a shut-in loved having her come to her home to serve her communion and then visit with her. My sister and I appreciated Mary Lou doing this for our mom. She had a big, caring heart.
