“ Nell was my aunt and only 4 years difference in our age. She was more like an older sister than an aunt. I have pleasant memories of her when we were growing up. Each summer myself and my younger brother would spend two weeks on our grandparents farm, Nell's home, and with Nell, raided the watermelon patch, explore the fields, ride the mule from the field, gather the eggs and just plain have a fun time. When I entered the Air Force, it was Nell that I received mail from other than my wife and parents. I would tell her about my Air Force life, things that I did and sights I had seen and she sounded so interested. She was great support to me when my father died when I was in Viet Nam. She gave me great encouragement and was one that I could discuss problems with. I miss you sister.
