“ One of my earliest memories was attending Matilda’s wedding. The first thing you noticed was always her smile. And later in life she was one of the most exuberant mothers I knew! She was always so excited to share news about her 4 boys! And I was always intrigued with your names-were easy to remember being biblical names. I was quite impressed with her zeal and for her positive outlook on life, even as your father passed. She was so loving and attentive to checking on my parents. She brought them much joy. She didn’t complain about anyone or anything last year when two other cousins and I visited last year. Life well lived!!! You boys have a great legacy... Archie and Christine were favorites of mine as well!!! Such wonderful people and great memories- so much love!!! Cherish !

“ Aunt Matilda always came to visit with mama while Uncle James visited with Joe. She would bring pastries for Susan and I. She loved drinking coffee with mama. Will miss her greatly. Love you Patti and Susan, the twins.
