This is a sad time for the Schofield family in Arizona to hear of the passing of our cousin Randy. As a child each summer we would drive from wherever our father Woodburn (Big Buddy) was stationed in the Air Force to visit our Florida family. I remember once taking a drive down to visit Uncle Maurice and Vivian and the boys on the farm. We had a blast riding in the back of the pickup with the boys watching them work and clown around. I was around 10 at the time and was extremely impressed with how strong they were. Each one lifting racks of tobacco up to dry all to the oos and awes of the impressed cousins from Arizona. I will miss seeing Randy's photos on line and reading the loving words for all of you. We are praying for all of our family that miss him dearly. God Bless you Randy. Rex Schofield and family
