“ Dear Glenda, Charlynn, Donna and extended family, I am sad for your loss. I so loved visiting Aunt Mavis and Uncle Frank and you my cousins when I was a child. Your mother reminds me a lot of myself. Pretty direct in her communication and strict in her parenting. Maybe I was more like her than I was like Grandmother! Anyway, I have precious memories of her. I will never forget her. She was actually the first piece in my steps to Christ. Wish I could be there with you to celebrate her life. Love, Karen

My Dearest Charlynn and family. I am so sorry for your loss, yesterday in church I thought of my Dear Aunt, how she was such a fine woman, wife, mother, grandmother and aunt. Some of my very best childhood memories were coming to visit my "down south" family. Just the thought of pulling up to Cody Road to see my Grandmother, Aunts, Uncles and Cousins bring tears to my eyes. We, Edward's children felt loved by our family down south and I know much of that came from my Aunt and all of you.

Later in life when Anita and I were able to visit with Uncle Frank and Aunt Mavis --- such times of joy, unless of course Uncle Frank thought I was getting the Joker too much in a game of Rook.

So many of these memories came flooding back the past couple days, but mainly I know my Aunt was concerned for and loved me ---- I know she prayed for my relationship with the Father and Jesus, I believe her prayers have helped lead me to where I am in life and I am very thankful.

I know my sweet Aunt Mavis is in heaven today and for that I am smiling.

I love you all.

Cousin Billy
