“ Our love and prayers go out to Meg’s children and family. When Vinson called me, we could not believe it. It breaks our hearts. We know that God has Meg in his arms. He will bless the children and the family through this sad time. God’s peace and comfort, He will provide.

Love,
Joe and Georgia White

“ Megan,

I enjoyed having you as my neighbor, but you became my friend over the years of us living next door to each other. I will miss hearing the boys running up and down the stairs, you and I calling on each other to grab a package that we'd ordered because we were not home to receive it ourselves, or exchanging Christmas gifts for us and the boys, and so much more. Thank you for showing kindness to me and Ethan and ALWAYS having that smile on your face. It was easy to see that you were a great friend and mother to Christian and Bryson because of the love and respect they had for you and the respect they showed to me and others.

I remember us having conversations about not moving away from each other because we didn't know what kind of neighbors we would get next. So we told each other to NEVER MOVE! We had become comfortable enough with each other to call and get advise or help each other through problems we were facing, as well as celebrated any good news we had to share.

It's rare to find someone with a kind and giving spirit that never asked for much but was ALWAYS I MEAN ALWAYS ready to help anyone in any way possible without wanting something in return, I managed to luck up and have you as my next door neighbor!

Your spirit will live on in your boys.

God doesn't make mistakes and I know he put us beside each other to learn and grow from one another and this by far is a hard message to write without shedding a tear because You will be truly be missed my friend.

Sincerely,

Keiha Reid
