My God it still dose not seem real. I had just talked to her last week and without going into detail she was telling me something she did and said and as Tony had her walk away she told me that he said to her u can take the girl out of Springfield but u cant take the Springfield out of the girl. She said after he said that she thought of me and how she sounded like my crazy ass. We talked some more and was planning for me to come see her. She and were ALWAYS close growing up and remained that way as adults. Our oldest daughter's grew up around each other cuz i would spend a lot of time with her when the girls were young. I remember my freshman year home coming i went with my friend Heidi and Missy took us in her camaro t-tops out. Missy used to babysit myself and my sister wanda when we were young. I remember one of her favorite songs was Shut up n push it by Salt n Peppa we used to crank it up and dance to it all the time. She is going to be missed by so many ppl. She was just as beautiful on the inside as she was on the outside. Ik iam thankful to have had her in my life NOT only as my cousin but as my sister. Till we meet again. I love u

Standing here with Grandma, she wanted me to write about how musically gifted Aunt Missy was. She said that she played the drums for the church and got to play "Script Ohio" in High School marching band.
