“ Dearest Cheek Family, What a fine and gentle man our adored Cousin Melvin was! All the Cheek men have been so similar--men of strong faith in God, deeply devoted to family, brave in defending our country, keenly intelligent, and yet, always, exceedingly humble. We thank God for blessing our lives with these great Cheek men, including our precious Daddy/Papa, Vernon; and dear Uncles Edwin, Jasper, and Brannon; and cherished Cousins Melvin and Arnold. Surely, there must be a great celebration in Heaven, as they are all now rejoined in a circle of love, surrounded by other treasured loved ones! I will always remember the kindness and strength in Cousin Melvin, and his sense of humor and perseverance. Cousin Melvin reached out to our beloved Mama and Daddy so many times. He and sweet Cousin Nadine, his life-mate and Soulmate, made Daddy's last years better by the many times they phoned and visited him so faithfully. Any day I got a phone call from Cousin Melvin and Cousin Nadine, I could feel their love and always enjoyed our long talks about happy memories of our loved ones. Sharon, Joanna, and Charlie join me in sending each and every one of you our deepest sympathy and abiding love in your loss of an unusually wonderful man, Cousin Melvin, who made our lives richer and better just by knowing and loving him. In Christ's love, Anne
