“ My thoughts of Melvin, Live, Love, Laugh, tell ye ole stories of the village, make sure your neighbor knows his side of the staub, especially if he's a Yankee ! It was my honor to be your neighbor, I shall miss our time together on your side of the staub: the barn, swing and porch. Thank you for everything my friend.

“ I could not have asked for better neighbors than Mr. Melvin and Mrs. Lucy. They were always so kind and thoughtful. It was always a joy to sit and Chat with them. I looked up to their front porch every time I walked out of the house to see if Melvin was sitting outside so I could wave. Ill always be thankful for the times he sat on those front steps talking to Jessica when she was a little child and had walked out there to see him. They will both always hold a special place in my heart.

“ My heart is broken . Melvin was like a "little brother" to me . I remember Lois & I washing his feet before bedtime in the summer when we all went barefoot . Would loved to have hugged him again & laugh about some of our antics as children . I know his family was waiting for him when he "arrived " . Wish I could be there but physical problems stand in my way . I want to do something in his memory & I hope you will give me a clue . Wounded Warrior or something along that line ? I am there in spirit .
