

Michael H. Maguire

October 23, 1944 - September 27, 2015

Michael Harold Maguire of Newnan died Sunday, September 27 after a long illness.

He is survived by his mother Louise Hall Maguire of Thomaston, Ga. and brothers Jack Hall Maguire and his wife Linda Maguire of Lexington, SC and Stephen Duke Maguire and his wife Lisa Maguire of Thomaston, Ga. and their respective families. He was preceded in death by his father Harold O. Maguire of Thomaston and his twin sons Don Maguire and Doug Maguire, both of Newnan.

Mike was born in Atlanta, Georgia October 23, 1943. He earned his bachelor's degree from Georgia Southern University and did graduate work at The University of Miami. He worked for decades in the insurance business, most recently as a manager with Cotton States where he retired from in 2008.

Mike had a generous sense of humor, was known as a great encourager, possessed amazing fortitude and was a devout Christian. He loved music, as a guitarist and as a fan. He also enjoyed sports and enjoyed spending time with family and friends at concerts and football games.

“ I am so sorry to hear about Mike. He was a friend to everyone who knew him and one of the finest men I ever knew. I am a better person for having been associated with him for many years at Cotton States. God bless you all. Don Henry “ Mike was a dear friend of my husband, James Claxton. They worked together at Cotton States Insurance for many years and enjoyed a love for music, particularly bluegrass music. Mike was one of the kindest men I have ever known. He will be missed by all who knew him.

“ Love and prayers to all of you. So thankful that God allowed for the special times that you were able to spend together the past couple of weeks. I know that you will hold on to each other and God as Ms.Maguire (grandmother) has always set a perfect example of doing.
