“ I remember one summer micheal myself Mr marno the father and joe took a ride to the shore in their car to see Mel tormay I hope I'm spelling his name right he was some famous 1950 jazz singer they called this guy the velvet fog and I remember in that very small cramp car the whole ride down we keep imitating Mr velvet fog all the way down to the shore and it drove Mr marno and joe crazy until they told us to shut the he'll up!!! We got quiet felt some kind away and slowly began imitating him again God we were two silly goofy nerdy cool kids and I wouldn't change it for the world love you brother lot ❤️

“ Micheal was one of my best friends and there was three of us mike Kenny roberts and Kenny baker and we were inseparable but as life would have it people grow up and move away and we lose touch with each other I recently reconnected with Kenny baker and oddly enough my sister and I were discussing Micheal and I went on line to find him and to my dismay saw Marion post and couldn't believe that he was gone, I'm so sorry I didn't move fast enough to reconnect with him but I loved him he was my brother and I'll miss you forever but I'll laugh and smile and shed a tear for the past the 80s was the best time in my life like the movie Roll Bounce we're friendship truly was a special time and I'll cherish all the wonderful things we did together love you micheal angelo marno!! And one day I'll see you again I'll follow your piano playing outside the heavenly gates!!! And my heart goes out to you Joseph and your family. Robertsken002@gmail.com 908 400 2035

“ Dear Marno family,

I am so sorry for your loss. I lost him too. I went to Scott High School with Mike. He was a year ahead of me. He has been a brother, a friend an inspiration, a confidante and someone I have loved for over 40 years. I was texting with him the day before he died. I had no idea it would be our last conversation. He reminded me that I could do anything I put my mind to. He was my cheerleader. He reminded me that I shouldn't take things so seriously. He would poke fun at me whenever I got serious about things that were not that important. He was a great friend. I love you Mike and I will carry you with me wherever life's journey takes me. Rest in Peace. You are loved.

“ Just found out today... gutted, I knew him for a very brief moment and those moments had already felt special to me. It's a shame that I won't get to make more with him. My condolences.

“ I was fortunate enough to travel with Mike in 1999 during the Newseum's NewsCapade tour across the U.S. He was an indispensable engineer. The tour couldn't have functioned without him. He was also a talented photographer and a great cook. Our friendship was one that I treasured. My deepest condolences to his family. He was one of the great ones. -- Sharon Shahid

“ Mike was an incredible person with an infectious smile and quick to laugh. Some of the favorite parts of my day were sitting with Mike and talking about all the plans for the restaurant. When I am in my office, I can still hear him singing as he walked down the hall. He brought so much joy to everyone around him. My deepest condolences to his family and friends, this is such a tremendous loss. --Deirdre Kline
