“ Mick was an amazing person in all he did in life. A great musician I actually took lessons from and he was the only person I ever asked for lessons. He and "Chief" were the first people at Fatboy's to make me and my wife Ramona feel like we belonged. He'll always be missed yet always remembered. He was just one in a million and anyone lucky enough to know him, knew it. Prayers to the family .

“ I know you are playing guitar with some of the greats and maybe you are cooking up some good waffles! Sure enjoyed the times we got to play together in years past, especially the two nights we played at the club on Jackson Street and our little gig in front of Target, but most of all when we went out for a bite to eat afterwards with our group, and I got to know you even better. (Bob Dalton). Mickey, we were always so glad that Bobby and later, we, were able to know you. Always a smile and a kind word from you. Our hearts broke when we heard the news of your death. So sorry I won't get to see your sweet face at WH anymore.

“ So sorry for your loss, I met Mickey while fixing a leak on his water heater. He helped a friend of mine when he needed it. Remember you will see him again, and remember the good times here you had with him. May God place your arms around this family in their time of loss and help them heal.

“ I was deeply saddened to hear what happened. I haven't seen Mickey in a few years, but I have known him since the mid-90s. Truly the embodiment of the saying, "Never met a stranger." My prayers and thoughts are with his father and sister that I did know and with any of his family that I never met.

I can't imagine what you're going through, but seeing the outpouring of memories people have been sharing about him, it's clear he touched far more lives than many people could ever hoped to have touched. I'm very sorry for your loss and for the loss the world suffered, too.
