Michael Robert Twomey, age 67, of Newnan passed away on December 29, 2021 at Piedmont Newnan Hospital. Mike, or as he was affectionately known to family as 'Mick' or 'Mickey,' was born on March 29, 1954 to Brigitte (Maurer) King and the late John Edwin Twomey in Salzburg, Austria. They built a life together and raised their daughter in this city where he formed so many friendships.

“ As the first born and BIG brother to all his siblings Mick led the way in so many ways. An Air Force colleague (and fellow MG Midget buffs), Manfred Manville, wrote about their service together in the Air Force - 'Real hairy stuff, he was a supremely brave man, and it was an honor to fly close to the edge with him'. Mick was brave to the very end. Rest in peace, brother. We'll miss you.

“ I proudly served with Mike in the 6911 Sec. Sq. at Offutt AFB. We flew many missions in our RC-135. We were close friends, and had identical MG Midgets that we would race around Omaha. We both graduated from HH Arnold High, in Wiesbaden Germany. I tried for years to find him, but lost track. My sincere condolences.

I was in the Class of '72 with Mike at Gen. H.H. Arnold HS IN Wiesbaden. I married a fellow Wiesbaden grad who also joined the Air Force. I was working the drive-up window at the Bank of Bellevue, Offutt AFB and Guess Who came through my line on payday? He recognized me despite the name change and I enjoyed seeing him whenever he drove through in his sporty little car! Rest in Peace.
