

Michel Marcel Léveillard

January 7, 1933 - June 15, 2025

Michel Marcel Léveillard passed away peacefully at his home in his home office, affectionately known as his "Bunker," on Sunday, June 15, 2025 at the age of 92 surrounded by his family. Michel was born in Rouen, France on January 7, 1933.

He is survived by his loving wife of 61 years, Patricia Ann Léveillard (Henkel). Michel is lovingly remembered by his children, Michael (Donna) Léveillard of Gay, GA, Monique Davis of Newnan, GA, and Marcelle (Benjie) Shoemake of Newnan, GA; his grandchildren, Chance (Alyson) Léveillard, Lauren (Tim) Fenner, Rachel Shoemake, Ava Shoemake, Elizabeth Davis, and Elise Davis; and his great-grandchildren, Blakely Léveillard, Sutton Léveillard, Addison Fenner, and Emory Fenner.

Michel grew up in Rouen, in Normandy, France with his mother, Rachel Léveillard (Ollivier) and his father, Marcel Léveillard, enduring the bombing of Rouen during his preteen years. At age 20, he made his trans-Atlantic passage on the Queen Mary to pursue his dream of becoming an airline pilot in America. In 1963, his dream of becoming a pilot came true, and he began his 33-year career with Eastern Airlines where he met and married Patricia Ann Henkel, a flight attendant. As he advanced in his career, he also earned his nickname "Captain Mike" and became a self-taught equivalent of an aeronautical engineer proposing methods of flight for the Boeing 727 that yielded immense fuel conservation.

After moving from Virginia to Georgia, the couple settled in Brooks, Georgia to raise their children. Michel enjoyed flying jets and enjoyed teaching others (over 1000 students) to fly in general aviation, including gliders and aerobatic training. A true historian, he assisted many with his shared experiences and stories during World War II as a youth for publications such as "From Rouen to Hiroshima" by Paul Le Trevier. His adventures have been captured in a biography "Cap'tain Mike: Les tribulations d'un pilote français mélomane en Amérique" by Jean-Noël Violette, with whom he shared his adventures on a platform called Aérostories.

Beyond airplanes, WWII, and war planes, Michel's passion was culinary. He was renowned for his masterful French cuisine, barbecue, and smoked salmon. He will be deeply missed by his family.

Funeral services will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, June 19, 2025 at the Brooks Christian Church, 969 Highway 85 Connector, Brooks, GA 30205. Burial will follow in the Brooks Memorial Cemetery, 147 Price Road, Brooks, GA 30205.

The family would like to extend their deepest gratitude for the love, prayers, and support of family and friends, as well as the professional help from Brightmoor Hospice.

“ I knew Mike through email correspondence after offering his condolences when my late father, Ross Guerrero, passed away in 2016. Mike was Dad’s flight instructor at Hull Airport in Sugar Land, Texas in the late 1950’s - early 60’s. Mike shared stories and even sent some old photos of my parents from then. I am very grateful. Mike was a true Aviator and I appreciated his friendship. My condolences to all the Leveillard family - Rick Guerrero, Rosenberg, Texas.

“ Dear family
I experienced a close friendship with Michel Leveillard, as we exchanged a lot of messages over the course of the last five years. He told me all about his experiences as a pilot on different planes, and I was very interested. My godfather was a pilot in the same company in USA.
His passing is a great loss. All my condolences to his family

“ My wife Jo and I move to Brooks in 1963, and shortly thereafter Mike and Pat move to Brooks.
Mike flew for Eastern and I flew Delta, together in 1967 we bought an old acrobatic trainer that had been used to train World War II pilots in England.
I had an acrobatic airplane and Mike helped me improve my proficiency as he had been an acrobatic instructor.
Our wives would take our children to the airport to watch Mike and I do our tricks in the sky our family has been very close ever since those days.
Mike taught two of my children, Monty and Beth how to fly and helped Monty get ready for his private aircraft license.
When we were tired from the airlines Mike and Pat along with Joanne myself spent a couple of weeks in France together where he showed us around and introduced us to people he knew and a couple of relatives he had.
Mike was a special guy a special aviator quite skilled in acrobatic flying. He was also very instrumental in saving Eastern Airlines a lot of money by developing flight profiles for the pilots to follow in order to save fuel.
He will be missed.
