“ I did not know Ms. Mildred, but I served in the military with her brother, Frank Carroll during 1955 -1956 in the Phillipine Islands. Frank and I were good friends at that time and still remain so, after re-connecting several years ago. Being Georgia country boys, we developed a bond only kindred spirits have. I met many of Frank's family, and his sister, Betty, at her husband's funeral in 2015. I felt that I was at one of my family reunions, and was right at home with Frank's family.

My deepest condolences to Mildred's family during this difficult time.

“ Mildred was my sister and we loved each other all the years. We had a loving, hard working family. The family consist of seven boys and four girls of Spencer Franklin and Lula Waldrop Carroll . Many hardships and fond memories were shared over the years. We were taught honesty, honor and faith by our parents. There were only three of us left and now since Mildred has gone to be with God that leaves Betty and myself, Frank. May God richly bless the family of Mildred. We will always remember Mildred.

My love and prayers
