

Morelle Morrow Fernstrom

December 12, 1925 - August 14, 2013

Morelle Morrow Fernstrom went to heaven on August 14, 2013 and joined her family who preceded her; parents Marvin and Clara Moore Morrow and siblings Raymond Morrow, Loreen Morrow Thomas, and Rosalie Morrow Cates. Morelle was born in Newnan on December 12, 1925, but lived her adult life in Atlanta .She was a member of Northside Drive Baptist Church and served as Sunday school teacher for 25years with her first husband, Rex J. Nelson, who preceded her in death. She later married John Fernstrom of Atlanta who also preceded her in death. She is survived by her sister Virginia Morrow Walls and her niece Ann Morrow Copeland Booth and husband Al, who were her caregivers for the last several years. Other dear nieces and nephews also survive her. Funeral arrangements are by McKoon Funeral Home. The graveside service will be on Friday at 2:00 PM at Oak Hill Cemetery with Reverend Jerry Walker officiating. In lieu of food or flowers, please perform an act of kindness for the elderly in remembrance of a great southern lady. McKoon Funeral Home 770-253-4580.

“ Sad about his father AND he still gets back to work stirhgat away. He's amazing. I can't honestly for the life of me remember Wenger ever missing a game whether through a ban or sickness. He really is a manager to be proud of.
