“ Hey sis, i am back 9 and a half years later to let you know I Love You and I miss you. Im 28 years old now and we lost you at 20 years old. I pray for your soul/spirit to be with God/Jesus after judgement and i pray me, you, Jeffrey Eason, Dennis, and the rest of the family and friends will be together again one day. I cant wait to see you again you are constantly on my mind you will NOT be forgotten while im still alive on this earth. I know you dont know whats going on in the world of the living as scripture says, but i pray to spend a eternal life with you after the final judgement. I pray that the last time we seen each other was not the last time we will have ever seen each other. Much Love to you Morgan. - Sincerely your brother Tyler Williams

“ Dear Debbie, My sincerest condolences to you and your family on the passing of your beautiful daughter Morgan. I never had the pleasure of meeting her, however, I see that she looks just like you did as a young lady....beautiful! I completely understand, that no words written or spoken can deflect the pain you must feel. I can only say, with complete belief, that you will one day reunite with Morgan and your joy will be restored. I can only hope, that the many memories you have of Morgan, will sustain you until that glorious day arrives. You are in my thoughts and prayers and I hope the knowledge of where Morgan resides now, will bring you some peace of mind.

“ Sweet Debbie, As I begin to write, I find myself praying that God will give me the words that you need to hear & something that might bring you some comfort. I don't know if you know this about me, but I buried my son Alex on August 2, 2002. He was stillborn & even now, almost twelve years later, I tear up writing about him. I won't say that I know what you are going through, but I do know what it's like to bury your baby. As angry as I was at God during that time, He never left me. He brought people to me who had been there too. That and the love of my family & friends helped so much. I'm here to tell you that it will get better. I will be there for you day or night for anything you need. I pray for you everyday. I love you!!

“ I remember being in elementary school with Morgan. I don't know if you remember me Miss Debbie. We went on a field trip together and we went from the field trip to your job at Papp Clinic and we waited in the car and had fun. It was always a pleasure to be around her. She will truly be missed and always remembered as a flower child. Miss Debbie call me 706-570-1814. Love you and Rest in Paradise!! Chris McNeil

“ Debbie- You have been in my thoughts and prayers daily since hearing of Morgan's passing last week. Loving Jordan like my own, my heart has deeply hurt for her and the loss you have both endured. I have seen pictures of the two girls when they were little and can only think...there were two precious angels standing next to each other and now there is one above watching over you both. Please know that Taylor and I are here for both of you, day or night.

“ Dearest Debbie, Jordan and family. I am writing for myself and on behalf of my son, Jordan. Jordan adored Morgan and she has been in our life for almost 2 years. If not for your precious daughter, my son might not be in a recovery program today, because Morgan was so against drugs and Jordan had a problem with addiction. She was welcome in my home and I will so miss her beautiful smile, long, lovely hair and those bare feet! Rarely did I see her with shoes on for any length of time. I don't understand any of this, so many unanswered questions and so much sadness. I know this beautiful young girl is in Heaven, now, and I just hope and pray that God will bring you comfort in some way during this terrible time of loss. My Jordan will be told of his loss tomorrow morning and we are praying he will trust in God and continue in his road to recovery. If there is anything I can do for you, please do not hesitate to let me know. I sent your Jordan a message on facebook with my number. We have never met, but we have one thing in common, our love for your precious daughter. I still keep thinking this is a nightmare and we will wake up, she didn't deserve to go, especially so soon, but I will be forever grateful to that child because my son would not have gotten the help he needed if she did not insist on it. I have kept all her text messages and sent them to him every week in my letter and I have a box full of pictures of the two of them. I just wish I could comfort you in some way. You will all be in my prayers and I will be praying for my son as well, when he finds out he has lost the one great love of his life, little Mo. Love and Prayers, Terri Dewberry

“ Mike, Debbie, Jordan and Tyler we are so sorry for your loss. Morgan was such a sweet a cute little girl when we were spending time together many years ago. I remember the times she and Jordan would play dress up and just be such silly little girls. Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this very difficult time.

“Debbie Cakes, While the loss of a loved one is never easy, it is most certainly the hardest when they are taken from us too soon. The loss of your precious daughter Morgan just makes my heart ache for you Debbie Cakes. I offer my sincere condolences and my deepest sympathy on the loss of Morgan. I ask for God's blessings on you, Jordan, and the rest of your wonderful family. I ask that God wrap his loving arms around you and comfort you like never before. May you find the courage and strength to move forward each and every day. Heaven has gained a precious angel, as Morgan is with our Heavenly Father now. I enjoyed the stories about how free spirited Morgan was, especially not liking shoes! LOL! Thinking of you and praying for you. With all of my love, Kristi Cash Thompson
