“ I am very sorry to hear of Alan's death and send my deepest condolences to the Adams family. Alan was my first friend--my earliest memories are of my brother Geoffrey and me and Alan and Tony playing in our adjoining yards in College Park. Alan taught me how to ride a bike, and this past summer as I was teaching my two daughters to ride, I thought about him and how much fun we had. That is how I'll remember him.

“ I have the most fond memories of Alan...aka "Crazy-Legs". He was skinny, but you couldn't catch him if he had a football in his hands. We spent many hours on the ball fields that Alan's daddy help build. I very much look forward to someday playing ball with Alan again. Thank you Narvell and Hamby for always treating me like I was one of your boys. What a GREAT childhood we had in Peachtree City.
