“ I have many great memories of my Grandmother.
She always had a smile on her face and you never had to wonder what she was thinking.
I can remember getting a sweater every year for Christmas.
I remember visiting in Florida and going swimming.
My Grandmother was as tough as anyone I know.
I can remember her getting into a car wreck and breaking some ribs.
I called to check in on her and of course she said she was fine.
She went on to tell me that she couldn't take the pain medicine anymore because it made her sleepy.
She had slept till 5:30 A.M. She was in her 80's at this time.
As I said she was tough.
Most of all my Grandmother was a good God fearing woman and set that example for all of her family and friends.
We could not have asked for a better role model.
My Grandmother lived her life in a way that we all would be blessed to live.
