“ Dear Mickey and Connie, Our hearts are saddened to learn of Mickey's Mother's passing. It would have been wonderful had we had the opportunity to know her. We promise our prayers and thoughts to be of you and all the family and so sorry that we are incapacitated and could not easily be with you at either time. We love you both and know this is a devastating time with many cares. BUT, rest all of your cares on the One who truly understands all you are going through at this time.
