“ Please accept my sympathy in the passing of a great lady. I taught with her many years and highly respected her as a professional and fellow teacher. She also taught one of my girls, so I know what a great and loving teacher she was. I would have liked to attend the visitation or the funeral, but I had knee replacement in June and it was followed by a staff infection. I also have a pinched nerve which won't allow me to stand or sit for very long. I would give each of you a hug. With warm regards, Sue Hunter

“ To George and Ben Harris and family: In my mind, I see three little girls walking down a dirt street in Turin laughing and talking as they go by. It was Lucile Banks, Francis and Helen Shell. They were having such a good time! I know Mrs. Helen had a good life, family, and friends growing up, in a good town. She had a good husband and children, education, and a job close to home. Later, she had a good daughter-in-law, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. I know that she had a good time. I am sorry that she is gone. Jim Adamson
