“ Broken hearted, yes I am, we all are. You left us way too soon, but in the "Nancy way", gracefully, because that was you. Never wanted the attention, always focusing on others and their well being, genuine, plain and simple. If we could all be like you, a perfect world it would be.

Memories all the way back to mom's kitchen table chats, sneaking in and out, last minute road trips, 1st apartment, followed by many more, then all of a sudden we actually grew up and had to start the travels of responsible adulting, but we never lost touch thru good and bad, cheers and tears.... We made it!

Then, you found Mark, your forever after, but angels were needed in heaven and you were chosen. In greed, I ask why, but I know the answer....you were needed, and the guy in the sky won..

Word to you my friend: Can't wait till we catch up again..... there is always so much to share.

Dang, I'm not saying goodbye... Until next time..

Love you to the moon, see you soon. Pssstttt... put in a good word to the gatekeeper...

My family, your extended family, sends their love and prayers of comfort to you, Mark and family.

Always here for you girlie...XOXOXO

“ I had the fortunate opportunity to work with Nancy as one of our Corporate Travel Consultants. She reported into my team from Texas at the time. She was a professional and someone who cared a great deal about the customer and the experiences they had with her. She always wanted to do her best and although at times, she may have questioned herself, I never did. She was the kindest and sweetest person and we spent some time chatting at the end of her shift on the issues of the day or the challenges she was working on. Never, never did she once complain. I always looked forward to hearing her voice. She was a beautiful spirit and I send my heartfelt condolences to her family at this difficult time. I am blessed to have known her for the short time that I did. She will be missed. Peace to each of you.

“ Nancy was part of our family for many years. I have wonderful memories of travel adventures and visits to Austin. How we loved day long antique shopping for tea cups and saucers, followed by long talks late into the night. As our lives changed and we each took a different path in life, we lost touch for a time. But, God blessed us to reconnect and it was as no time had passed at all. Nancy was, and always will, remain part of our family. Even though our plans to reunite this holiday season did not happen, I will be eternally grateful for the time given, to reminisce and catch up on our lives. I will forever hold treasured memories of Nancy in my heart. My deepest sympathy goes to her husband Mark, the family and the friends she loved so much.

“ Nancy was a pro. She could manage the most difficult booking (I once had to schedule a trip with 10 stops!) and she did them all with ease. I never had to second guess any trip she put together. Well, there was that one time when instead of ticketing my boss to Singapore (SGP) she ticketed him through Viet Nam (SGN). We caught it before he left but laughed about it for weeks!

Nancy had that unusual talent of mixing professionalism and perfection and slipping in a sense of humor. She loved her family and was loved and respected by everyone who worked with her... and I can truly say everyone. My heartfelt condolences to her family and many friends.

“ Nancy was our companies travel agent for years. She was assigned to the executives but would help anyone that called upon her. She could fix flights and problems when no one else could. Because we both were Nancy W's and with auto-addresses like they are we often got works requests for each other and would laugh..I would tell her she was always Nancy #1 she was the best. I do photography and she loved the shots of my horses and nature and was always such a fan. What a sweet happy soul that will be missed by so many. I pray for comfort for her family. Fly high sweet lady.... Nancy W #2 will miss you.
