“ *Dear Family of Wayne Wilson,
I was saddened to just now hear of the loss of Wayne..He rented part of his home on Shamrock Way to me when I first moved to GA for work back in the summer of 2007. We shared a lot of time after work & in the evenings watching the Atlanta Braves play (I'm certain he would have loved to see them win the World Series this year) , "Everybody Loves Raymond", talking about family, growing up in the area & even his love of dancing competitions & the " pretty ladies". He had a girlfriend he said was originally from Ohio that came to visit every now & then and I believe they were in dance competitions together as well.. Wayne had a very distinctive laugh & we shared many laughs together.
Although I rented a place with him I felt more like a brother or a friend of his than just a tenant. He is surely missed a lot. My sincere condolences. Edward (Ed) Ballin. edwardballin55@gmail.com.*

“ *Met Wayne in 1994 when we started taking dance classes in Sharpsburg with Rachel and Guy. Wayne was the nicest person you would ever want to meet. He was fun, kind and loving to everyone he met. We traveled a lot together and it was never a dull moment. Such great memories with him and Cindy. This World lost a great one to soon. All our love to his Family and his Dance Team Family. “ Wayne went to school with a few of my siblings. He Perry and Jerry rode horses together and always went camping. Wayne was always welcomed into the Bishop Home. My parents loved him. He had a Heart of Gold. It was my honor to be able to be by his side those last few days. Loved when he responded, when I came to his bedside hours before. That was important to me. That he knew the Bishop Family was there for his family as he did for us when Perry passed. My condolences to Troy Wanda Sandra Teresa and the entire Wilson Family. May your memories live within your hearts and RIP My Friend!

“ If it wasn't for Wayne, we would not have gotten our boat moved and we would have never know how fun it is to go to the auction. Wayne was an amazing dancer, teacher, boater, camper, and friend. He will be desperately missed by more people than you could ever imagine. We pray his family find peace in their hearts . Much love, Tom and Candy Shoemaker
