

Nell Griffis Jackson

November 11, 1931 - October 3, 2019

Nell Griffis Jackson of Newnan, Georgia met her Lord on October 3, 2019. She was born November 11, 1931 to the late Oscar B. and Lorena Karr Griffis of Villa Rica, Georgia. She graduated from Villa Rica High School, Villa Rica, Georgia in 1948. On August 25, 1951, Nell Married Searcy Jackson from Carrollton, Georgia. In 1954 Searcy answered the Divine call from God to enter the ministry. Both she and Searcy believed a call to preach was a call to prepare; thus, they began their educational careers. Nell's employment career included the accounting department of Southern Bell in Atlanta, the payroll department with Talon Zipper Co. in Cleveland, GA, First Federal Savings and Loan in Cordele, GA, First National Bank in Gainesville, GA, accounts receivable clerk with Air Host Inn in Atlanta, bookkeeper with Newnan High School and over 17 years with First National – First Union Bank. The earlier jobs, Nell was working to enable her husband, Searcy, to complete his college and seminary training. She worked during the day and attended college at night, taking church related courses. She attended Truett-McConnell College in Cleveland, GA, Mercer University in Macon GA and The University of Georgia satellite campus in Gainesville GA. In addition to her parents, Nell Jackson was preceded in death by her sister Doris Jordan and her husband Ray Jordan, Betty Miller and her husband Tom Miller, a brother Charles Griffis and her nieces Judy Jordan Philips, Jane Miller Hall and a nephew David Jordan. Survivors include her husband of 68 years, Searcy Jackson of Newnan, GA; her children Danny Jackson and his wife Brenda of Leesburg

GA, Jeff Jackson and his partner Stan Pollard of Atlanta, Jan Rivers and her husband David of Augusta GA. Her grandchildren are T. J. Jackson and his wife Amanda of Leesburg, Heather Rivers of Augusta, Jackson Rivers and his wife Erica of Carrollton and Zoe Margolin of Atlanta. Nell was instrumental in organizing the WMU, the Sunbeams and YWA while Searcy was pastor of Antioch Baptist Church in Bowden GA. She also exercised leadership in all the churches where they served. While Searcy was transitional pastor at Macedonia Baptist Church, the Young at Heart Senior Ministry was formed. It is a vibrant part of the church to this day and a tribute to the vision she and Searcy had for the ministry. Nell was known by her traits of dependability and sincere dedication to whatever task in which she was involved. These life lessons were also the bedrock of raising her children. If a task was worth doing in life, it, absolutely must be done correctly the first time, as that may be the only chance one gets. Nell was a loving and devoted wife, mother, and grandmother to her family and understood very well her duty as the wife of a minister. She would comment that while Searcy might be leaving the church they were serving, they really wished they could keep Nell. Nell was born of an incredible servant's spirit. Her greatest joy was in service to the sick, needy and the hurting. Church membership was never a determinant in her servant heart. To be in her life, hopefully, you would receive one of her famous pecan pies, and if you were out of the area, they could always be shipped to you! The life of this dear saint of God will be remembered and joyfully celebrated in a service to be held at her beloved Macedonia Baptist Church in Newnan on October 6, 2019 at 2:00 PM. The family and friends will gather for visitation at McKoon Funeral Home at 38 Jackson Street in Newnan on Saturday, October 5, 2019 between 2:00 PM and 4:00 PM. In lieu of flowers, those who wish to memorialize her life, may do so by a memorial gift to Macedonia Baptist Church 1504 Macedonia Road Newnan GA 30263 or to Brightmoor Hospice 3247 Newnan Road Griffin GA 30223, www.brightmoorhospice.com.

Online condolences may be expressed at www.mckoon.com.

“ Ms. Nell was one of the sweetest ladies I've ever had the pleasure of knowing. She and Mr. Searcy passed on their kind ways to their children as well. Every time I was around her, she made me feel special and I just thought about what a gracious lady she was. She will be truly missed. My prayers are for Mr. Searcy, Danny, Jan and Jeff and the whole family. I love y'all.

“ Though it has been many years since I last saw Mrs. Jackson, my memory of her is as vivid as if it was yesterday when I last saw her sweet smile. She was such a loving, kind, supportive and caring woman who adored her equally sweet husband and their children. She was also an amazing southern "chef" and I will always remember the car full of home-cooked dishes of everything imaginable that her son and my dear friend Jeff would bring back every time he went home to visit his parents. Sending my love and healing thoughts to the family.

“ Miss Nell was a lovely, kind and gentle lady. Certainly, God has a new plan for her spirit in the Kingdom of Heaven. I remember her clearly from growing in Macedonia Baptist Church and know she will be missed by her family and friends. My prayers and thoughts will continue for Mr. Searcy, Danny, Jan, Jeff and extended family.

“ Mrs. Jackson was one of the kindest, most loving, and most giving persons who ever lived. She was an exceptional role model. No one was more dedicated to her church and family. I have so many fond memories of Mrs. Jackson. My heart goes out to Mr. Searcy, Danny, Jan, Jeff, and the rest of the family. I know you will miss her so much, as we all will. She was truly a special lady.

“ Our hearts ache for you all. We have sweet memories of Nell and Searcy from the time we were very little. As adults, They have been with us at every major event in our lives. Our love for this couple is so deep. Nell laughed with us and cried with us when we walked through this same valley for our loved ones. She sat at the bedside with us, stood with us at the graveside, smiled and prayed over us more than once. She loved on us as a young married couple, offered words of wisdom to us as young parents. Of course, pecan pies were frequently involved. We love you all and pray for you as you walk through this valley. May wonderful memories flood your minds and warm your hearts . Much love and condolences to you all. Ray and Alyson Putnam
