“ I remember a sweet, smiling, happy lady! I taught Cheryl in the first grade, have seen and talked with Nancy lots and remember Kelly talking about Tommy - such a nice family! Don't be sad because she isn't here with you now; rejoice and be happy that you had her with you all the years you did:

“ Cheryl, All of you are in our thoughts and prayers. You were so unselfish. I feel sure that the good care you took of your mother helped her live such a long wonderful life. You are all to be commended..I never heard one of you complain. All your classmates at Western send their love. We will see you tonight.
