“ About my beautiful friend Opal, she was truly my best friend. I will always love and miss her. Opal was the most kind hearted and positive person I have ever known. She always had a way of cheering me up when I was down, she always seen the best in everything. I will always cherish the beautiful memories we made together. When her and Bob moved from Knox to Georgia I have never stopped missing them, it was then I realize just how much we take for granted in life. They were the best neighbors in the world. Opal go find yourself among the angels because that is exactly what you are, a true angel in disguise. I know when my life is over, you will welcome me at the pearly gate with open arms and together we will stroll through heaven together and reminisce where we left off. Rest in peace OPAL no more pain and suffering is truly my wish for you! Your friend Janice
