

Pamela Ann Farley

September 8, 1944 - December 25, 2024

Ms. Pamela Ann Farley, age 80, died in Newnan Georgia on December 25, 2024. She was born on September 8, 1944, in Glendale, California, to the late Mark David Justice and Liane Jeanette Rice Justice.

Pam graduated from Glendale High School in 1962 and attended the University of Utah. After college, she started her airline career, working in operations for Western Airlines and then with Delta after the merger for 35 years.

Pam loved animals and exploring the world. She was an avid lover of dogs and raised prized Afghan Hounds for most of her adult life. With a love of adventure and exploring, she traveled the globe during her career in the airline business. In retirement, Pam traveled throughout America by car and visited the Southwest states often, learning and expanding her appreciation for Native American art and culture.

Pam's final resting place will be in Westchester County, New York, joining her mother and many generations of ancestors, including 5th generation Great Grandfather Jacob Purdy, whose home became General George Washington's headquarters in 1778 during the Battle of White Plains in 1776. A private celebration of life will be held at a later date.

She is survived by three stepsons from a previous marriage and numerous cousins.

Condolences may be expressed online at www.mckoon.com.

McKoon Funeral Home & Crematory (770) 253-4580

Tribute Wall

EC

“ I worked with Pam for Western Airlines in LA and we had many great times together.. Pam was a very trusted friend and we kept in touch after she relocated to GA with Delta Airlines. I pray she did not suffer. We had lost contact with her this past year and we miss her phone calls and visits.

Elsie Carson

ELSIE B. CARSON - February 09, 2025 at 07:19 PM